

RegConf .txt file description

This file is an ROI configuration information file, and the file name cannot be changed.

File Contents:

Each row represents an ROI

Each column represents:

| ROI_id | Group_id | Reg_id | X_left | Y_left | X_right | Y_right | weight |
|-------------------|--------------|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| ROI serial number | Group number | layer number of image | The abscissa of the upper left corner of the ROI rectangle | The upper-left vertical coordinate of the ROI rectangle | The abscissa of the lower right corner of the ROI rectangle | The ordinate of the lower right corner of the ROI rectangle | ROI weight value |